

Cong Keter Torah & Cong Rinat Yisrael

600 Roemer Avenue

389 W Englewood Avenue

Present

Dr. Aliza Lavie

Author of:

A Jewish Woman's Prayer Book

Friday, March 6, 8:45pm Oneg Shabbat at Rinat Yisrael
“Jewish Women’s Prayers – A Secret Woman’s Code”

Shabbat, March 7, 3:30pm at Keter Torah
“Forgotten Women in Jewish History”

Dr. Aliza Lavie is a lecturer in the Department of Political Studies at Bar-Ilan University, in Israel. Her fields of research include gender, public communications, and the world of feminine Jewish wisdom and knowledge. Dr. Lavie is also a presenter and editor of television programs on Jewish culture. The Israeli edition of her book has sold over 100,000 copies; the American edition won the National Jewish Book Council Award.

HaRav Israel Meir Lau on A Jewish Woman’s Prayer Book:

“Tefilat Nashim is a book that brings together both types of prayer. Many of the prayers included in it were written long ago by renowned rabbis and sages, whose prayers have been adopted throughout the Jewish world. Other prayers have been composed from the heart by individual Jews in times of trouble and crisis. While the content of the book is mostly very old, the form is new. The innovation here is the modern style and format, appealing to women who are unfamiliar with Jewish tradition and who are uncomfortable with the standard prayer book. Tefilat Nashim aims to draw Israeli women closer to the prayer book. It is my prayer that many women will find, in this book, that which their soul desires: supplication for all times and for all circumstances. Prepare their hearts, listen to them, and accept our prayers with compassion and with favor, for You hear prayer.”

Men and women invited